

The Lord says in Isaiah 49:15, “Can a woman forget her nursing child and, not have compassion on the son of her womb? Surely, they may forget, YET I WILL NOT FORGET YOU.” [Emphasize mine.]

Unfortunately, Juan Carlos could answer the first part of this scripture by saying, “Yes, a mother can forget her nursing child. Mine forgot me. Not only was I totally forgotten but also my body suffered marks by the cigarette burns inflicted by my mother and her lover.”

Praises

Last month, we had two wonderful groups. The first group beautified our buildings. The second group had VBS. It was lots of fun! But one amazing testimony, Josue, a professed Jehovah’s Witness, accepted the Lord and now calls himself Christian. “Mama, I cried a lot when they left because Jesus is now in my heart.” We are so grateful for all groups! You don’t have the slightest idea the role you play and how your life is going to impact one of these little ones.

Juan Carlos, four years-old, was brought to our Guachochi home by Child Protective Services. He was living at the state-run orphanage in Chihuahua until it was decided to bring him back to Guachochi where he was born.

Prayer Requests

Pray God will open doors for us in churches in the United State to share.

Juan Carlos came to us extremely aggressive, because of his emotional wounds and abandonment. However, in just three short weeks, he is already greatly improving his behavior. This is because he is already beginning to feel the love of the Lord through the staff and the acceptance of his newfound family.

Returning to Isaiah 49, the Lord says that a mother may forget her nursing child, but He also declares, “I will not forget you.”

Juan Carlos can now answer with joy, “Yes, it’s true!! The Lord has not forgotten me.”

We are praying every day, “Lord, you know where the needy children are. Please bring them to us.” And God is faithful in answering our prayers.

Matthew 18:5 says, “whoever receives one little child like this in My name receives Me.”

Thank you for being God's extended hand in helping us welcome all the little children into our home. As we open our home to one of these, we are welcoming "JESUS."

Our prayer for you is that God will open the floodgates of heaven and bless you as you bless us.

With love,
Ed and Rosa Salo
