December Newsletter

When we think of December we think of Christmas. And when we think of Christmas we think of presents, food, and fun. We can get so caught up with all the preoccupations that we forget that Christmas is about Jesus. The media portrays that Christmas is all about buying gifts and family and friends and enjoying one another. We forget the suffering of the first Christmas

Prayer Requests

Please pray for Mama Rosa. She fell and broke her hip.

that Jesus was born in a humble manger and had to flee for his life as the blood thirsty King Herod sought to kill him.

We can also forget that children all over the world are suffering during this Christmas season.

We can forget the Carlitos who lived in Guachochi's garbage dump, the Reina's who suffered so much when her father would take her to soldiers to be sold in prostitution, the Cesar's who lost his mother through brutal murder.

But the first Christmas wasn't just a time of suffering. More importantly, it was a time of rejoicing for the arrival of the Savior who came to save and heal us.

Christmas is now also a time of rejoicing for Carlitos, Reina and Cesar, who have now received the love and healing of Jesus in our home.

Thank you for all your help in turning a suffering Christmas into a rejoicing Christmas for all of our children .

May you have a blessed Christmas along with your family.

With Love
Ed and Rosa
