Martina arrived two weeks ago to Lily of the Valley's Guachochi extension. Her mother abandoned her. Martina left to school and her mother left to work in the field. Little did Martina know that that would be the last day she would ever see her mother.

Days stretched into weeks and weeks into months. Martina cried herself to sleep every night. She would tell herself, "Truly, my mother will be back" to try to comfort herself. However, deep inside she knew it was not going to happen. She would go from house to house in her village begging for food and asking all the people, "Do you know where my mother is?" No one knew.

Praises

The San Diego team came to give but instead they received 100% and more, changing their lives forever.

Martina began to hit the streets looking for love but found herself getting into trouble.

One day, an aunt came from another village totally unexpected. She was shocked to find out that Martina was abandoned. The aunt was too poor to care for Martina so she was advised to bring her to Lily of the Valley.

Prayer Requests

Please pray for us. The rainy season did a lot of damages to all our homes.

Here is the best way to describe Martina: She is a young girl who is very hungry for love. She goes after and gratefully receives at least five hugs a day from each of the female staff. Martina is elated to have a family who cares for her and her needs.

Can a woman forget her nursing child and not have compassion on the son of her womb? Surely they may forget yet I will not forget you.

Isaiah 49:15

Martina cried out all alone in her house. God did not forget her! God brought her to a home where a girl so hungry for love could receive all the love she needs.

As this Thanksgiving season approaches, please take a moment to reflect on everything that God has blessed you with. We are so busy preparing for our festivities and preparing to spend time with our loved ones as well. Remember that there are thousands of children all over the world looking for a piece of bread to feed themselves.

We wish you a wonderful Thanksgiving Day with your loved ones.

Thank you for your generosity and prayers!

With love,
Ed and Rosa Salo
