

November Newsletter

Do you remember those times when you missed a lunch or dinner or for some reason hadn't eaten for a while? You had food hunger. The person serving you food did not have to call you twice. You were there at the table quickly and you ate with relish. Now let's translate that idea from food hunger to love hunger. We have a six-year-old child, Jesus (Chuy), who definitely has love hunger. He "runs to the love table" (the love which we adults give him) and partakes quickly and ravenously of the love we have to offer. So often we hear him knocking on the door of our home or coming up to us asking a million questions in order to get attention.

When we found out about his background we realized that there are very good reasons for his love hunger. Chuy never had a father and his mother gave him away to his grandparents. Soon after giving him away his grandmother died and his mother went to prison for a long prison term. Chuy was raised by an emotionally cold, and stand-offish grandfather who cared less whether Chuy ate or not. He was truly raised like a little animal. He was an extremely hyperactive and behaviorally uncontrollable child. The grandfather brought him to us and abandoned him.

Praises

A new couple is coming to work with us in our Guachochi home.

But, Chuy is changing and developing physically, mentally and emotionally. He is becoming responsible with his chores and personal hygiene. He is gaining self-control. This improvement came because we were willing to supply with God's love the voracious love hunger which Chuy had. God's love is an ever-flowing fountain.

Jesus said that when we drink of His living water it becomes a bubbling fountain of love. We pray every day "Lord give us your love for the children. Our human love fails but your love never fails."

Please remember Chuy, especially this month of November which is his birthday month.

Prayer Requests

Pray with us that Chuy will be totally healed emotionally.

The Lord exhorts us in

"to set the oppressed free and break every yoke. To share your food with the hungry. If you do this, He promises you that "your light will break forth like the dawn and your healing will quickly appear.

You will cry for help and He will say "here am I."

Isaiah 58:6

We wish you a blessed Thanksgiving.

Thank you for your prayers and financial support. The more finances the more children.

With love
