Several years ago The Lord gave my wife, Rosa, the vision to celebrate "Christmas in the Streets", a Christmas celebration in the poorest neighborhood of Chihuahua, a place called Soledad. In this neighborhood people lived in wood and cardboard shacks with no electricity or running water. We had only two weeks to organize the event in order to meet the date The Lord gave us. We needed 500 gifts, one for each child. The Lord had really blessed our children at the beginning of December. We asked our children at Lily in a non-pressure way if they wanted to be part of such an event. To our surprise they enthusiastically collected among themselves 500 gifts. And guess what? after the event they received 1000 more gifts that Christmas!! You surely cannot out give God!!

The following year God told Rosa that He wanted to have 3,000 children at the event. This time He wanted the body of Christ to get involved. We sent buses to the outskirts of Soledad and 3000 children attended, not including their mothers. Each child received a gift.

Praises Report

Rosa's health has improved tremendously

Amazingly, that year we collected 4000 gifts. We had left over 1000 gifts that were sent to missionaries in the Sierra Mountains and to Chihuahua Children's Hospital. Also at the event 600 people accepted Christ as Savior, a new mission-church was started, and electricity and running water came to Soledad that year.

We gave the event over to a dear pastor-friend and started working on a new vision of our home in the Mountains of Chihuahua, which is now Guachochi Extension. This year we are doing "Christmas in the Streets" in the Mountains and are planning to receive 2000 children. In the area where we are going to celebrate "Christmas in the Streets" we have seen children with such severe skin diseases it looks like they have leprosy. It would break your heart. These children need to know that God loves them.

Prayer Requests

Gifts and bags of candies to come in for this event.

"The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'"

You can help these children by praying and by your financial support.

With love
Ed and Rosa Salo
