

Eleven years ago, the Lord gave us a strong compassion for the teenage girls of Chihuahua. During this time, we were contacted not only by Child Protective Services but also by family members who were in desperate need for help with their adolescent girls who were hurting, rebellious, and many of them pregnant and living in the streets.

We continued to pray for God's timing and a couple that would take over this ministry. In July, the Lord revealed to us that He had been preparing this couple right underneath our noses. Two of our workers, Tio Andres and Tia Hilda. They expressed a deep desire to work with teenage girls. We were thrilled!! Slowly but surely, we have been taking in these hurting and needy teenage girls.

The need is so great, that sometimes CPS sends two girls at a time. Two of these girls are pregnant.

God provided a Christian psychologist.

These are girls that are so hungry for love and attention. We are seeing such changes in their lives and we are deeply impressed by their thankful attitudes.

Cassandra is one of these miracles. She comes from Durango and was brought to Chihuahua. An aunt had thrown her out in the streets. An older man took advantage of her need and took her in as his lover.

Prayer Requests

Pray for a couple to take over the adolescent boys' home.

Shortly thereafter, a neighbor noticed the situation and called CPS. Cassandra was brought to us by the authorities. Her beautiful and thankful attitude is nowhere better expressed than in an incident that happened one week ago.

At that time, Papa Ed was sitting outside the church during an Independence Day party, sad due to his father's death. Cassandra noticed him and brought him some food to cheer him up. Her example encouraged the other 7 teenage girls and they all brought him food.

He had such joy from experiencing the love of these girls that he couldn't be sad anymore. These girls are attending high school and junior high.

Jesus so often reached out to hurting women such as Mary Magdalene, the woman at the well, and the woman caught in adultery. How can we not follow His example and reach out to these girls in trouble?

Jesus replied, "If you only knew the gift God has for you and who you are speaking to, you would ask me, and I would give you living water." John 4:10

We are so grateful for your continual support both in prayer and in giving. It is through your generosity that we are God's extended hands.

Thank you for partnering with us in reaching out to these teenage girls and our children.

With love,
Ed and Rosa Salo
