

October Newsletter

This past weekend the children and adults of “Lily Guachochi” were attending a concert at a local park. After the concert Aunt Maggie’s sharp eye detected a small child wandering alone in the park. Maggie felt God prodding her to go up to the child.

She came to a touching sight. The small child was obviously lost and abandoned. He was dirty and had lice jumping around in his unkempt hair. He was trembling with fear, so fearful that he would not speak when Maggie asked his name. (We later found out that his name was Damian).

We took him home to Lily of the Valley. He was given a hot meal which he ravenously devoured and a hot shower that he was thrilled to receive. At that point Child Protective Services came and told us that they discovered the mother lying on the side walk and all drugged-up. It was then decided that Damian was going to stay with us. When the children showed Damian his new bed he exclaimed with glee: “you mean I get to live here”!!! I wish we all could be as thankful as Damian about the simple pleasures of life. A simple meal was to him a King’s feast. A ride on the swing was like a trip to Disney World. A single bed was to him like a President’s mansion.

Praises

Rosa’s health is improving day by day.

A fearful question came to our mind. What if Damian was not discovered and was left to wander alone in the park at night? Guachochi has night time dangers like most any city or town in Mexico or the U. S. A. It was The Lord Jesus that led Aunt Maggie to Damian!

We once again say that we are so thankful for your prayers and financial help. The truth in missionary work is: “some pay, some pray, some go.” We are all a team. To put it bluntly, your help means more Damian’s rescued. You may not think you have any part in this rescue process, but we are convinced that your help is an important part of the process, a very important part. More help from you means more children rescued-it’s that simple.

Prayer Requests

Please pray this prayer along with us, “Lord, you know where the hurting children are. Please lead us to them.”

Then Jesus told them this parable: “Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn’t he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?”

Luke 15: 3-4

With love
