

Have you gone through the experience of losing your mother in the supermarket because something in one of the aisles caught your attention while your mother went to another one? Suddenly, your mother is not around you and you begin to look for her in total desperation, frightened and ready to scream. Your body system is trembling and your heart is beating twice the normal rate. Then, what a relief when you see your mother running to you and picking you up, kissing you, and relieved to find you. What a terrifying experience!!!

And that is only for a few minutes in a brightly lit, enclosed area.

Praises

The teenage girls home re-opened. We now have fourteen teenagers.

Now, imagine being lost not just for a minute but for hours in the night, roaming the street and with no mother to find you or even look for you. We are sure that the terror and fear is at least ten times worse.

This is what Miguel, seven years-old, and his sister Sintia, five years-old, went through. These two children went through the night without being noticed by anyone. It was not until day break that the authorities found them and were brought to us in the Guachochi home. The authorities looked for the mother and did not find her. Apparently, the mother just abandoned them.

Prayer Requests

Pray the teen girls adjust to their new lifestyle.

What a thrill to know that these two children can have a home with loving people around them.

We are reminded of the song Amazing Grace, which says "I once was lost but now am found."

These children now feel a joy and peace similar to the song. They were once lost in the streets and now are found in a loving home.

We are so grateful to have you partner with us in reaching out to these children.

Matthew 25:40 says, "And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!'"

Mother Theresa said, "If you cannot feed a hundred people, then feed just one." Because each of you are feeding your "one," we are now able to reach out to seventy-five children.

Thank you for your love and prayers.

With love,
Ed and Rosa Salo
