

Merry Christmas from all of us at Lily!

We are sending this note to express our thankful hearts for the support we have received from all of you. During this time of year we celebrate the birth of Jesus, the Son of God. We celebrate that he came to the earth to teach us, by example, how to live. We have joy in our hearts knowing that Jesus left his perfect life of love to come live in a place of imperfection. Jesus left His Father in Heaven to give His life for us, we are anything but worthy of this great love. It is this love that empowers us to do things that we would have never imagined.

In Romans 5:5 we see that God's love is poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. This is the love that we are called to share with others. Today a simple smile, hug, or piece of advice can make a difference in a life that was once marked by pain.

This year impossible dreams have come true because of love. The love of God that has come from all of you has touched the heart of every child here at Lily. Hearts that were once filled with sadness are now filled with joy, and hearts that were once filled with fear are now secure. This Christmas meditate on what God is speaking to your heart. Maybe God wants you to visit someone you have not seen in a while, or is telling you that your child simply needs a hug. Maybe you feel God is calling you to make a difference in the life of someone else. You can decide whether to obey or ignore this voice within. This Christmas you can surprise someone by doing something that you would not normally do. Embrace the ones you have not embraced, and express love to those whom are not receiving love. This holiday season we hope to surprise, as well as be surprised, by the expression of God's love in our family. Make this Christmas different than any other, just listen. Thank you in advance for your expression of God's love to our children.

Sincerely,
Eduardo and Rosa Salo
